

Named Entity Reference Tags

grape:

- Use for specific varieties or blends.
- Examples: Chardonnay, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Pinot Noir, Tempranillo, GSM blend, Rose (if referring to wine made from red grapes)
- Note: Chablis is NOT a grape it's a region.

region:

- Geographic origin, from broad countries to specific appellations.
- Examples: France, Bordeaux, Burgundy, Chablis, Napa, Tuscany, Rioja, Mendoza, Provence, Willamette
- OK to tag broad regions (e.g., 'French wine')
- Tag U.S. states if relevant (e.g., 'California red') producer:

- Winery or company that made the wine.
- Examples: Missing Link, Duckhorn, Beringer, Chateau Lafite, Ridge, Kendall-Jackson

price:

- Mention of cost, value, or budget.
- Examples: $20, under $100, affordable, good deal, overpriced style:

- Describes flavor profile, body, sweetness, or structure.
- Examples: full-bodied, dry, crisp, jammy, oaky, buttery, high acid occasion:

- Context for drinking or buying the wine.
- Examples: corporate gift, dinner party, holiday, picnic, client meeting

Intent Classification Tags

Intent:

- send_email 'Can you email this to the client?'
- set_reminder 'Remind me next week to follow up.'
- follow_up_request 'Did they get back to us?'
- sample_request 'Can you send bottles to try?'
- taste_description 'Very oaky and smooth.'
- pairing_suggestion 'What goes well with lamb?'
- price_comment 'This was a steal at $15.'
- quality_judgment 'This wine was garbage.'
- check_shipment_status 'Has the case of Barolo arrived yet?'
- gift_request 'Need a $100 red for a holiday gift.'
- product_recommendation 'Recommend a dry white?'

- correct_order 'I asked for Pinot, not Syrah.'
- misc 'Thanks again for everything!'

Tone Tags

Tone:

- neutral plain, informative
- cheerful friendly, upbeat
- polite courteous, reserved
- frustrated annoyed, impatient
- angry aggressive or blunt
- urgent time-sensitive, rushed

Sample Tagging Breakdown

Example:

- 'This California Pinot was overpriced. I asked for Burgundy.'
- region: California, Burgundy
- grape: Pinot
- price: overpriced
- intent: correct_order
- tone: frustrated